BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., Sept 1st, 1881.

Sir,

I transmit herewith a letter addressed by Jno. C. Wilson, Esq of this city to the Secretary of the Treasury, under date of the 28th ultimo, complaining of incivility on the part of one of the conductors at your Mint.

I would state that Mr Wilson is a gentleman of high standing in this city, and what he says is entitled to every credit.

I would suggest for your consideration, that if the conductors of the Mint are permitted to sell these books and medals, that it would be better that they shall offer them to visitors after they have been conducted through the Mint, and upon their exit from the building.

You will please return the letter of Mr Wilson, with any remarks you may desire to make.

Very respectfully
